3-day national conference begins at Vipra College

■ Staff Reporter
RAIPUR, Feb 16

UNDER the joint aegis of Vipra College of Arts, Commerce and Physical Education and Faculty of Education, Kalinga University three-days National Conference on 'Intellectual Property Rights: An Overview and Implications in the Academic World' was inaugurated at Vipra College auditorium on Wednesday.

Professor Dr KL Verma, Vice Chancellor of Pandit Ravishankar Shukla University was the chief guest and special guest was Professor Dr Girish Kant Pandey, Ex Registrar of Pandit Ravishankar Shukla University and Professor of Defense studies, Government Nagarjuna PG college of Science, Raipur.

Vice Chancellor Professor Dr Verma said that collaborative effort is good for improving the quality of education and research. While advancing the intellectual property, the knowledge of the individual has been considered to be paramount. Special attention has been paid to this in India since independence. Due to which today India is counted in the leading position among intellectuals. Professor Girish Kant Pandey said that in order to keep Goddess Saraswati and Goddess Laxmi together with a person. It is essential to get protection of intellectual property. Such conferences are useful for the awareness and knowledge.

In his welcome address

Principal of Vipra College, Dr Meghesh Tiwari informed that it is the first ever joint event after having MoU signed with Kalinga University. Vipra College is making continuous efforts in such a way that the famous universities and colleges of Chhattisgarh come together. Regular efforts should be made for quality education in association with NAAC. Vice-Chancellor Professor KL Verma was also honored with a shawl, shreefal and a memento.

During the first technical session of the conference, a lecture on intellectual property rights was delivered by Prof. C D Agashe, Head of Department, School of Physical Education and Director, Institute of Teacher Education, Pandit Ravi Shankar Shukla University, Raipur. He told that plagiarism, patent and copyright, etc. comes under the ambit of IPR. India was at number 81 in the category of awareness in the world. But now it is at number

40. Thus awareness has increased in our country as well. Switzerland is at number one. Data, dates, some concepts, symbols, etc. are not covered under copyright. Therefore, when we talk about intellectual property there is a need of awareness that how to protect it. Second technical session of the first day was addressed by Himanshu Chandrakar, of RGNIM, Nagpur. The first technical session of the second day of the conference, Dr. Anjali Awadhiya, Head of Department of Physics, Government Nagarjuna P.G. Science College, Raipur presented lecture. Second technical session was addressed by Pooja Moulikar of Nagpur on Patent & Design Examiner Dr. Divya Sharma, Head of the Department of Education, Vipra College, and Dr. Shraddha Verma, Dean Faculty of Education, Kalinga University, were the conveners of the National conference.
